

Peer Nomination Form

Read each of the questions below and write the names of 1, 2 or 3 students in your class on the lines provided. Because you might think of the same person or people for a number of the questions, you can use them as often as you need to.

1. Who stands up for what they believe in regardless of what others think?

---

2. Who objects when others are left out or treated unfairly?

---

3. Who would notice AND understand if you were feeling unhappy or worried?

---

4. Who objects when people say one thing and do the opposite?

---

5. Who is hard on themselves when they don't make a good job of something?

---

6. Who asks the most "why" and "what if" questions?

---

7. Who has lots of unusual ideas?

---

8. Who is often the only one who finds something funny or tells jokes that most people don't get?

---

9. Who has girls AND boys in their circle of friends?

---

10. Who keeps on at their work until they have done the best job that they can or they are made to hand it in?

---

11. Who would make a loyal, trustworthy friend?

---

12. Who does not follow the crowd in what they think and do?

---

13. Who gets upset with themselves when they say or do something which upsets someone else?

---

14. Who uses the most interesting words and expressions?

---

15. Who has strong opinions on big issues like cloning or sharing the world's riches?

---

16. Who is easily hurt by what other people do or say to them?

---

17. Who puts other student's needs or happiness before their own?

---

18. Who keeps on about an idea after everyone else has finished with it?

---

19. Who is hard to interrupt when they are concentrating on something?

---

20. Who seems to get lost in their own thoughts?

---